

This WEB site is owned by St Albans Charity Cycle Ride.

St Albans Charity Cycle Ride is a Registered Charity (1169651) and is committed to protecting your personal information in line with UK data laws.

Should you wish to make a complaint about our use of your personal information you have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), the UK supervisory authority for data protection issues (www.ico.org.uk). However, we would appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach the ICO so please contact us in the first instance.

Personal information

In providing you with our services, St Albans Charity Cycle Ride may handle your personal information. We are very aware that you trust us to keep this information confidential and that is why we comply with UK data protection laws.

Securing information

We are committed to keeping your personal information secure. We have in place physical, electronic and operational procedures intended to safeguard and secure the information we collect from you. All our website data is held under SSL to ensure the transmission of data remains encrypted between our server and browsers.

Information we may hold about you

The information we hold about you may include sensitive personal information. We may collect this information during contacts we have with you.

When we collect your information

Information about you is collected when you engage with the St Albans Charity Cycle Ride either by registering for a Charity Cycle Ride event, or submitting a query or enquiry concerning the event, or participating in any related marketing activity.

Using your information

We use your personal information to provide you with details concerning the event, and to improve the organisation and attractiveness of the event. We may also use your information to contact you about future SACCR events.

Sharing information

We will not share your personal information with any third parties.

Keeping information

We will only keep your personal information for as long as is necessary and in accordance with UK law.
